Working with the potential for violence Workshop

10th July 2012

This workshop looks at a variety of practical, common sense principles for the prevention and diffusion of violence against community welfare workers in a variety of community based settings. While it is clear that organisations must confront, understand and do all they can to prevent violence and its consequences, it is inevitable that community welfare professionals will often have to deal with situations where violence is a possibility or a fact.

Where: TBA, Gold Coast, QLD

Cost: The early bird booking is $220.00 if registration occurs before the 1st June 2012 (GST included). The fee for registrations after the 1st June 2012 is $275.00 (GST included). Morning tea and lunch is provided.

Working with men's responses to conflict Workshop

11th July 2012

This workshop explores key skills for working effectively with men's responses to conflict situations. It explores practical ways workers can respond when working with men who experience high levels of conflict or use violence in family relationships. Responses are powerful and active ways to work with men and change. This workshop builds upon the experience of participants and introduces a range of practical tools that can be used with clients in a variety of settings.

Where: TBA, Gold Coast, QLD

Cost: The early bird booking is $220.00 if registration occurs before the 1st June 2012 (GST included). The fee for registrations after the 1st June 2012 is $275.00 (GST included). Morning tea and lunch is provided.

Engaging fathers in family based programs

12th July 2012

This workshop allows workers, organisations or networks of services to provide more effective programs to men and families. The workshop explores the importance of the fathers' role in family services and how programs can engage and support this opportunity.
